

Fathers Absence – Arrangements

Promoting responsible fatherhood is the critical next phase of welfare reform and one of the most important things we can do to reduce child poverty.

- Former Vice President Al Gore, speaking at the National Fatherhood Initiatives 4th Annual Summit, Washington D.C., June 2nd 2000

- In 2001, nearly 60% of children lives with married, biological parents; In 2004, nearly 70% of American families were headed by two married parents
- In 1998, 67% of teens lived with biological fathers, 91% lived with their biological mothers...

Father Facts, 5th Edition, National Fatherhood Initiative, www.fatherhood.org

“Child Need Both Parents”, American Coalition for Fathers and Children, www.acfc.org