

Fathers Absence – Out-of-Wedlock

“Man and woman wed in holy matrimony followed by baby? We don’t do that anymore. Today having a baby is like swinging through McDonalds for a burger. One baby all the way...hold the dad.”

- Kathleen Parker, Columnist for the Orlando Sentinel, March 29, 1998

- In 2002, of the 18-34 year olds of a poll, 82% approved of single motherhood.
 - In 1998, a Gallop Poll indicated that 85% of Americans believe that “the number of children born to single parents” is either a “serious” or “critical” social problem.
