

Fathers Absence – Father Time

Three most important things to children? To love and be loved by the mother and father...to have enduring relationships over time with others who care for them...

- David Blankenhorn, Mississippi Clarion-Ledger, August 2004

- 73% of kids say they spend less than one hour a day talking to their families...
- 81% of youth ages 12-17 agreed agree that they can always trust their parents to be there for them when they need them.

Father Facts, 5th Edition, National Fatherhood Initiative, www.fatherhood.org

“Child Need Both Parents”, American Coalition for Fathers and Children, www.acfc.org